F C Bb F
There once lived a man, born of Tarsus, Saul by name
Bb F/A Gm C
He thought he knew the Bible, yet a killer he became
F C Gm F/A
A religious man, a Pharisee - a law-abiding Jew
Bb F Bb C F
But in his heart of hearts he was... the same as me and you

F C Bb F
Persecuting followers, of Jesus was his aim
Bb F/A Gm C
He scattered all the Christians; and caused them so much pain
F C Gm F/A
He even helped stone Stephen, a martyr bold and true
Bb F Bb C F
Who prayed that men like Saul one day... would call on Jesus too

F C Bb F
Chasing down the Christians, he sought them everywhere
Bb F/A Gm C
And into distant lands he went - how far, he didn't care!
F C Gm F/A
Even to Damascus, he hunted Christians down
Bb F Bb C F
But that's when Jesus met him there... just outside of town

F C Bb F
"Why are you fighting, and kicking Me young Saul?"
Bb F/A Gm C
To which Saul quickly answered, "You're alive Lord after all?"
F C Gm F/A
Then Jesus said, "Oh yes I am, And since you've now been found
Bb F Bb C F
The world is waiting for someone... to turn it upside down!"

F C Bb F
So, from, that moment, on that old dusty road
Bb F/A Gm C
Saul's life belonged to Jesus, and Grace overflowed
F C Gm F/A
He journeyed from Jerusalem to Antioch, to Rome
Bb F Bb C F
It was his wish that every day... to-show Jesus to someone

Now this is not the end, of the story that you know
Bb                    F/A            Gm            C
It continues to this very day, and the Gospel must go

Into, every generation life and heart and land!
Bb            F                    Bb    C            F
Saul's life was just a glimpse of grace... on which I too shall stand!
