

Born to Die

Words by Craig Ledbetter
Music by John Mahony

Soprano
Alto

Tenor
Bass

Piano

mp

Who Who Who Who

S
A

T
B

Pno.

lays in a man - ger? Who rests there a - lone? Is works with a ham - mer in His fath - er's small shop? Should is this Who walks a - mong har - lots and thieves? Who is this Who's hang - ing on Cal - va - ry's cross? Who

Born to Die

S
A

it some poor ba - by Whose name is un - known? Does He He not be train - ing for a place at the top? How lives in the fields yet with pow - er He speaks? Does He cries, "It is fin - ished" when all hope seems lost? Is it

T
B

Pno.

S
A

have a - ny fut - ure? Could He be some - thing more? Could this could this young carp - en - ter's Son be - come more? Could real - ly bring heal - ing, for - give - ness and joy? Then there on the cross that I fin - al - ly see that

T
B

Pno.

Born to Die

S
A

ba - by — be Some - one — we're all — wait - ing for? — this boy — be Some - one — we're all — wait ing for? — Yes,
 why do — men hate Him, — this Beth - le - hem boy? —
 Je - sus — is Some - one — Who died — just for me? —

T
B

Pno.

10

S
A

14 f

He's the great Sav - ior God's Son from on High. He was born oh — so low - ly so that

T
B

Pno.

14 f

Born to Die

47

S
A

we would ask "Why?". With all of life's strug-gles that cause us to cry. _____
In all of life's prob-lems our hearts on-ly sigh. _____ But He
With all of life's choic-es and paths that we try. _____
With all of life's ques-tions we can-not de-ny, _____

T
B

17

Pno.

21

mf

S
A

came not___ to please us._____ He was born, He was born___ to die.

T
B

21

mf

Pno.